

For Immediate Release

Contact: Rosio Hobbs, Director of Marketing and Communications

Phone: (213) 437-4205

PACIFIC ALLIANCE MEDICAL CENTER TO HOST

JOB FAIR FOR REGISTERED NURSES

Los Angeles, CA---August 2, 2013—Pacific Alliance Medical Center (PAMC) will be hosting a Job Fair for registered nurses that will showcase the unique employment opportunities available at PAMC.

The Job Fair will offer testimonials of nurses currently employed at PAMC and the reasons they choose to stay. In addition, the Fair will provide information on compensation, benefits, paid time off, opportunities for advancement, retirement plans and more.

The PAMC Job Fair will be held on Wednesday, September 25, 2013 from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. at 531 West College Street, Los Angeles, CA 90012. Because space is limited, reservations are required. To register, call (213) 437-4209.

About PAMC

Located in the heart of Los Angeles, PAMC has provided compassionate, focused health care for over 150 years. The hospital has a strong history of providing medical services that are both culturally and linguistically sensitive to the needs of a growing and diverse community. PAMC is accredited by The Joint Commission (TJC). As a result of PAMC's establishment of its proprietary Programs of Distinction©, the hospital has been rated among the best hospitals in the United States, earning the prestigious Thomson 100 Top Hospitals Award® as well as the Cleverly and Associates Five-Star Hospital Award®.

For more information log onto www.pamc.net.

###